Parade of Homes Wrap-Up!

The six entries in this year's Parade of Homes provided a great variety for those that passed through to visit over the course of the two weekends. All of our participating builders (Brueggen Home Construction, MAC Construction of Barron Cty, C&M Home Builders & BC Construction & Remodeling LLC) said they talked to many people interested in starting new construction or remodeling projects in the near future.

Over the four days of the parade, there more than a couple hundred individuals that purchased tickets, and most had visited all the locations of the homes. Thanks to all who helped make this year's Parade entries worth visiting, including our participating Builders, subs, and those who helped staff the homes.
